The Retail Bakers of America has been pursuing its passion for baking since 1918. The organization, a nonprofit trade association of more than 1,200 retail bakeries, allied suppliers and other industry members, is dedicated 100 percent to the success of the retail baking industry. RBA works as the member bakers' business partner and resource provider, reducing members' costs, improving profits and enhancing the prestige of all retail bakeries, while serving as the nation's premier source of industry information.

Membership is open to any establishment selling baked goods at wholesale or retail, companies and individuals supplying goods and resources to these businesses, and schools and students specializing in the craft of baking. RBA is the only national nonprofit trade association offering leading-edge industry leadership and baking business resources for independent retail bakeries.

RBA offers knowledge and resources to enhance business operations through learning opportunities, shared best practices, networking and industry communication. RBA works to establish retail bakeries as THE desired destination for consumer purchases of all retail baked goods.

Join RBA today to begin taking advantage of all it has to offer.
